A sliding sign, occupied, with the name of the meeting room.

The plate measures 300 x 200 cm.

The plates are made of metal and have an engraved information.

The blanking plate is moved, so we can easily communicate the message to our recipient, without listening to the oral knocking on the door and giving the same answers.

When placing the order - provide your content that is to be on the plate in the notes - we will make the project for approval.

As a standard, the plate has a silver frame and the contents are engraved on a silver background - the colors of gold may alternatively be used.

Your individual colors? - ask.

We ship the product to any country in Europe and the world within 3 days of ordering.

In this technique of execution, we suggest purchasing similar elegant plates with full engraved names for other rooms.

Details tell about the class of the object ;-)
